

Photography Web Resources

Here are some links to help make your photography more rewarding, by improving it, by sharing your photos, by perhaps making some $$ from it!

Photo Sharing

www.Flickr.com ---> I can't recommend this enough!

www.PhotoBucket.com ---> An alternative to Flickr.

www.Picasa.com ---> has decent companion Mac and Windows applications, too www.DeviantArt.com ---> Study other people's art and photography. Add your own for critique.

www.YouTube.com and www.Vimeo.com ---> For videos and slideshows

Sell Your Photography

www.SmugMug.com ---> The Photographer's e-Commerce site

Create Online Portfolios - for display and sharing www.CarbonMade.com

Make a Slideshow Online

www.Slide.com ---> With FunPix integration

Meet Other Photographers

www.Flickr.com ---> join photography discussion groups with other like-minded photographers who share your interests for just about any subject.

Start Your Own Photo-Blog

A blog let's you bring all of this together. You can share your work (images and videos), your inspiration and your thoughts/ideas all in the one place. You can connect with other photographers by commenting on their blogs and by adding them to your blogroll, and you can join photography blogging communities. Check out these sites to get started:

www.Posterous.com (Free) see mine at www.SandroCuccia.com

www.Blogger.com (free)

www.WordPress.com ... Seems to be the "standard" in blogging

Inspiration

www.Flickr.com ---> there are tons of galleries and groups that can awe and inspire!

www.WorldPressPhoto.com ---> The place for Photojournalism photography www.ExposureCompensation.com photography.nationalgeographic.com/photography ---> What would photography be without National Geographic!!

Other Links Mentioned

www.YouSendIt.com (free) ---> A great way to send very large files to others www.digital-photography-school.com ---> Very nice site for anyone learning about photography (and actually, we are all constantly learning).